

Examples of metadata to collect and where to collect them

Film Metadata:

- ▶ Based on video game, book, toy, play
- ▶ Original or sequel
- ▶ Rating
- ▶ Name
- ▶ Plot keywords
- ▶ Actors - awards, nominations, gender, age, percentage of these
- ▶ Budget v Gross
- ▶ Director - previous success, age, gender
- ▶ Language
- ▶ Release date
- ▶ Runtime
- ▶ Country made
- ▶ Genre

Data Sources:

IMDb - is probably the most well-known site, which provides lots of data on TV shows, films, actors along with ratings and other useful data.

<https://www.imdb.com/> -

The Open Movie Database - is an open source website that allows you to search for a film title, year or plot and it will bring you back lots of data from various websites such as rating, director, Oscar nominations even the studio who made it.

<http://www.omdbapi.com/>

Statista - huge database of statistics about the film industry <https://www.statista.com/topics/964/film/>

Creative Industries - overview of the creative industries, such as films, providing facts and figures <http://www.thecreativeindustries.co.uk/industries/tv-film/tv-film-facts-and-figures#>

British Film Industry - Statistics about the British Film Industry

<https://www.bfi.org.uk/education-research/film-industry-statistics-research>